

As I Ponder My Eternal Value

Marilee Kay Leishman

Earnestly  $\text{♩} = 80$
Introduction

5 Unison

1. As I pon-der my e-ter-nal va-lue, help me feel the worth
2. As I view a per-son rich or poor, may-be a stran-ger
3. As Thy Spi-rit prompts me where to serve, help me ex-pand my

8

of my soul. Fa-ther, Thou hast blessed me with Thy light, or a friend; I'll re-mem-ber each one's worth is e-qual, nar-row view. Let my mind be filled with Thy com-pass-ion, and Thy Son can make me whole. As I think a-bout my be-yond meas-ure, with-out end. When my heart is filled to and pure thoughts of vir-tue. Let the doc-trine of my great po ten tial and my spi - rit's di - vi - ni - ty, ov - er flow - ing, for all Thy gifts be - stowed in full;

11

14

 Sav - ior's gos pel, gent ly dis till u pon me now.

17

let me trust in Thy re - dee - ming plan, to live with Thee, e -
 I can see the beau - ty Thou canst give to e - very faith - ful, Let me mi ni ster where Thou wilt lead. Fa - ther, as I pray, this ter - nal - ly.

20

 won - drous soul.
 I a - vow.